

the City. the Hall will seat nearly one thousand persons and if a pleasant eve it will be full - if you cannot come at the time named, will you come the Sunday after.

Please write me in receipt of this and oblige your Friend and others,
R. Plummer

Mr. Schubar has rather a small class - his lectures here will not be appreciated as the orthodox influence has been so strong they dont dare go to anything out of the common course -

Dear Friend

165-
For a long time your friends here have desired to hear your speech in your native place, but as no definite time was named it has flattered on from year to year - yesterday I engaged the City Hall for you to speak in a week from next Sunday afternoon and eve. I want you to speak in your Native City and as hard as our City is - you will find the Hall full of anxious listeners - So will you come - at the time named I thought best to get the Hall before I notified you for I did not want you to come till you could have the best place in
